

On July 22, 1936, the United States attorney for the Western District of Pennsylvania, acting upon a report by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the district court a libel praying seizure and condemnation of three 5-gallon cans and five 10-gallon cans of cream at Pittsburgh, Pa., alleging that the article had been shipped in interstate commerce on or about July 21, 1936, in various lots by R. O. Ritter from Hall, W. Va.; Laura H. Hartley from Weston, W. Va.; G. F. Snyder from Oxford, W. Va.; J. G. Leichter from Moundsville, W. Va.; J. T. Fisher & Sons from Poolesville, Md.; and G. W. Rigenbach from New Martinsville, W. Va., and charging adulteration in violation of the Food and Drugs Act.

The article was alleged to be adulterated in that it consisted in whole or in part of a filthy, decomposed, or putrid animal substance.

On July 22, 1936, the article being spoiled and unfit for human consumption, at the request and with the consent of the Fairmont Creamery Co., consignee, it was ordered destroyed immediately.
